

Word Formation Sentences

C1 level

Form a new word using the capitalised word in each blank:

1. Their repeated _____ of the rules led to their suspension from the competition. (VIOLATE)
2. The senator's speech lacked clarity and _____, making it difficult to follow. (COHERENT)
3. The company faced severe financial distress due to the sudden _____ of funds. (WITHDRAW)
4. Her _____ to accept constructive criticism hindered her professional growth. (REFUSE)
5. The growing economic _____ between the wealthy elite and the working class in Brazil has sparked widespread protests. (EQUAL)
6. Mr. Smith's blatant _____ of safety protocols put other employees at risk and resulted in immediate dismissal. (OBSERVE)
7. The _____ of reliable data made it impossible to draw any meaningful conclusions. (PRESENT)
8. The unexpected _____ of key evidence forced the court to reconsider its verdict. (APPEAR)
9. Her deliberate _____ of the truth during the trial led to serious judicial repercussions. (CONCEAL)
10. The rapid urban expansion in Mumbai has led to the _____ of heritage sites and old marketplaces, altering the city's historic character. (ERODE)

Answer key:

1. Their repeated violation of the rules led to their suspension from the competition.
2. The senator's speech lacked clarity and coherence, making it difficult to follow.
3. The company faced severe financial distress due to the sudden withdrawal of funds.
4. Her refusal to accept constructive criticism hindered her professional growth.
5. The growing economic inequality between the wealthy elite and the working class in Brazil has sparked widespread protests.
6. Mr. Smith's blatant non-observance of safety protocols put employees at risk and resulted in immediate dismissal.
7. The absence of reliable data made it impossible to draw any meaningful conclusions.
8. The unexpected (re)appearance of key evidence forced the court to reconsider its verdict.
9. Her deliberate concealment of the truth during the trial led to serious judicial repercussions.
10. The rapid urban expansion in Mumbai has led to the erosion of heritage sites and old marketplaces, altering the city's historic character.